About the Fund

The Pendal Global Select Fund (Fund) is an actively managed portfolio of global shares.

Investment Return Objective

The Fund aims to provide a return (before fees, costs and taxes) that exceeds the MSCI ACWI NR Index (net dividends reinvested) in AUD over rolling 5 year periods. The suggested investment timeframe is five years or more.

Description of Fund

The Fund is designed for investors who want the potential for long-term capital growth from a concentrated portfolio of developed and emerging market listed global equities, with an investment timeframe of 5 years or greater and are prepared to accept higher variability of returns.

The Fund's strategy is based on a belief that stock markets are inefficient and aim to exploit market anomalies via an investment process that combines both top-down and bottom-up research. As investment manager, JOHCM's distinct '4-Dimensional' investment process (stocks, sectors, countries, time/change) focuses on the behaviour of each share price to determine whether the most important driver of each prospective investment is stock specific, sector or country-based.

The Fund will typically hold 30-60 stocks and is benchmark agnostic.

The investment manager recognises that ESG factors can create risks and opportunities for companies and as such incorporates ESG risks into their analytical framework and portfolio construction. Further, the Fund employs exclusionary screens to avoid investments in companies that cause significant social and/or environmental harm.

The Fund will not invest in companies directly involved in either of the following activities:

- tobacco production (including e-cigarettes and inhalers); or
- controversial weapons manufacture (including cluster munitions, landmines, biological or chemical weapons, nuclear weapons, blinding laser weapons, incendiary weapons, and/or non-detectable fragments).

The Fund will also not invest in companies which derive 10% or more of their gross revenue directly from any of the following activities:

- extraction, exploration, distribution, or refinement of fossil fuels, or fossil fuel-based power generation*;
- production of alcoholic beverages;
- manufacture, ownership or operation of gambling facilities, gaming services or other forms of wagering;
- manufacture of non-controversial weapons or armaments;
- manufacture or distribution of pornography; and
- uranium mining for the purpose of nuclear power generation.

*Companies with a climate transition plan may be exempted from this exclusion, provided that they have in place a Paris Agreement aligned transition plan and produce climate-related financial disclosures annually, which in both cases we consider credible. We define fossil fuels as coal, oil and natural gas.

All reasonable care has been taken to implement the Fund's exclusionary screens to meet the criteria described above. We draw on internal and supplementary external research, believed to be accurate, to determine whether a company is subject to the exclusionary screens.

For more information on how these exclusions are applied, refer to section 5 'How we invest your money' of the Fund's Product Disclosure Statement at <https://www.pendalgroup.com/PendalGlobalSelectFundClassR-PDS>

The Fund has assets that are denominated in foreign currencies. This means that changes to the Australian dollar relative to foreign currencies may affect the value of the assets of the Fund. Generally, these currency exposures will not be hedged to the Australian dollar but Pendal may do so from time to time.

Derivatives may be used to reduce risk and can act as a hedge against adverse movements in a particular market and/or in the underlying assets. Derivatives may also be used to gain exposure to assets and markets.

Fund manager commentary

- February 2025 saw the world's geopolitical situation dramatically change, leading to a significant reversal of the last few years market leadership and dynamics.
- The fund underperformed, partly due to its overweight position to beta and underweight to value stocks.
- Given the seismic geopolitical shifts we are seeing, we recognise an increasing probability that the current equity market volatility and rotation could morph into a Bear market.

February 2025 saw the world's geopolitical situation dramatically change, leading to a significant reversal of the last few years market leadership and dynamics. Traditionally defensive sectors outperformed cyclical sectors, international equity markets outperformed the US, value stocks outperformed growth stocks, and US beta underperformed all other factors by the most since the early days of the COVID-19 market sell-off.

We underperformed our benchmark index, partly due to our overweight to beta and underweight to value stocks. At the stock and sector level, our higher beta holdings in financials (Paypal and TPG), technology (Credo and Marvell) and industrials (Recruit and Prysmian) all got hit very hard during this orrelated-factor-driven market rotation. We had positive stock selection in the consumer discretionary (Mercadolibre and Sony) and communications services (Spotify) sectors. We will sell any of our holdings where we have lost conviction and replace them with potential new purchases that we believe were unfairly oversold but whose fundamentals remain positive.

So far in March, the speed and magnitude of change in Europe since the election in Germany is quite astonishing. We, and many other investors, are asking: has MAGA (Make America Great Again) had the unintended consequence of MEGA (Make Europe Great Again) with European equities significantly outperforming US equities in the year to date. In the opposite of the last few years, we now have new US fiscal austerity (the Department of Government Efficiency) with new European and Chinese fiscal stimulus (defence, infrastructure and consumption).

The US market relative to the World ex-US is now statistically oversold, with investor sentiment levels that have previously led to short-term relative trend reversals. However, given the seismic geopolitical shifts we are seeing, we recognise an increasing probability that the current equity market volatility and rotation could morph into a Bear market. We will continue to weed out any losers if and when they move into a new relative downtrend and replace them with new purchases, whose share prices remain driven more by their fundamentals and less by the volatile macroeconomic situation.
